HARRISON ADMITTED TO BAIL

His Case Will Come Up Next Tuesday.

A MAN OF MANY NAMES.

A Jack at all Trades And a Slick Citizen Generally Is Run to Ground By the Officers.

Special to the Telegram.

Winston, N. C., Feb. 24.—A special to the Journal says: "About daylight yesterday morning Sid Holler, one of Baldwin's detectives at Roanoke, Va., with a posse of men, arrested one R. P. Lewis, alias Price, alias Prentiss, alias Scales at the residence of William Lewis, five miles from Madison, N. C. Lewis was placed in jail to await the arrival of extradition papers from Texas. He is wanted in that state for forging a $300 paper upon which charge he has been already indicted and admitted to bail which he skipped several months ago. Lewis is also wanted at Keysville, Va., to answer serious charges, and a reward of $150 was offered by Keysville parties for his capture. This forger is a sleek and foxy article. His personal appearance is attractive, in fact magnetic. He is about 40 years old. His tongue is glib and he is a jack at all trades and master of several. He has been in his disguise, lawyer, preacher, politician and what not. It is said one of his relatives betrayed his hiding place.

The trial of Sol Jarrett, colored, charged with assault with criminal intent upon Emma Douthit, colored, January 19, comes up for trial tomorrow at 2 o'clock. Evidence is said to be very strong against him. In all probability he will be convicted and condemned to the gallows.

In answer to habeas corpus proceedings by the attorneys of J. W. Harrison, the slayer of Paul Stockton, Judge A. L. Coble has decided to admit Harrison to bail in the sum of $7,000 for his appearance for trial next Tuesday morning.

SOUTH AFRICAN COMPANY

Chamberlain's Plan for its Administration.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, Feb. 24.—A parliamentary paper has been issued containing Chamberlain's scheme for the future administration of the British South African Company.

The plan provides that the company shall refer any differences with the natives to the colonial secretary and shall obey his decision.

The company will also be required to furnish the secretary annually a statement of its accounts. If it fails, to comply with these requirements its charter is revocable.

The judicial appointments are subject to the approval of the secretary of state for the colonies. The resident officer of the military company is to be paid by the crown, who has power to remove him.

The base ball team of the Institute are getting in good shape to play many challenge games.

N. P. Catterton has returned from Brick Church where he has been visiting friends.

The Longest Run.

Augustin Daly's "A Night Off" is a comedy which has enjoyed the longest run in New York and other of the larger cities of any of his plays or comedies that have been produced by him. It is a genuine comedy such as is scarcely offered to the public—a comedy without that stale and misapplied word farce—the characters interpreted by a company of brilliant comedians rendering their respective parts in the most realistic, natural and graceful way and which is seen only in the finished and capable actor.

"A Night Off" is a comedy that will live for many years and still shine as a comedy when all other so called comedies are laid away on the shelf past all usefulness. "A Night Off" will be given at the Academy of Music on Friday evening February 25.

To Garrison Southport.

The Raleigh correspondent of the Charlotte Observer writes:

It is said that in a day or two 60 artillermen will go to Southport to garrison the new battery of three high-power disappearing guns. The garrison will be quartered in tents until the barracks are ready. No doubt quite soon there will be a battery at Fort Mason, as well as at Fort Caswell.

SPAIN TO AMPLIFY THE FARCE.

Mail From Havana Received—A Subterranean Passage—Search Lights and Camera to be Used.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Havana, Feb. 24.—The latest dispatches from Madrid confirm the reports that the home government agrees to the amplification of the autonomous constitution making it complete autonomy. The distress in Cuba grows with the alarm at the present situation because it is overlooked. The rigid censorship is causing great delay in the news.

MAIL FROM HAVANA.

Washington, Feb. 24.—The state department received in today's mail from Havana the deep expressions of condolence of General Blanco to Consul-General Lee following the Maine disaster.

THE SUB-MARINE PASSAGE.

New York, Feb. 24.—The Evening Telegram, the afternoon edition of the Herald, has received a cable from Havana saying that there is a sub-marine passage way under the harbor.

RUSSELL SAGE'S VIEWS.

New York, Feb. 24.—Russell Sage said today that he thought the Maine was blown up, and believes the country will demand an indemnity, but even that may not satisfy the craving for war.

WITH SEARCH LIGHT AND CAMERA.

Washington, Feb. 24.—Sub-marine search lights and cameras will probably be brought into use to prove the discoveries made by the divers while working upon the Maine.

Killed By Her New Shoes.

Ann McTague, 68 years old, of 328 East Twenty-second street, died yesterday afternoon at her home of erysipelas. Mrs. McTague, a few weeks ago, while putting on a new pair of shoes, accidentally scratched the sole of her foot with a nail on the inside of one of the shoes. She paid no attention to the matter until her foot and leg began to swell to an abnormal size.

A physician was then called, but, as by this time blood poisoning had set in, he could not save her.—New York Sun.

Making Improvements.

The carpenters have been at work a day or two making improvements in the handsome furniture establishment of N. J. McDuffie. Shelving is being put in on the south side of the large salesroom and Mr. McDuffie expects very soon to be equipped with a general line of house furnishing goods, in addition to the complete line of furniture already carries. He will also add an upholstering department.

In the mean time he says he will sell goods at reduced rates to make room.

She Married an Indian.

Great Falls, Mont., Feb. 23.—Major Fuller, the agent of the Blackfoot Indians, has issued an order prohibiting Mrs. Garrett White from living on the reservation. Mrs. White a month ago, while a teacher in the Fort Shaw Indian school, eloped with and married White, a full blooded Piegan Indian. She is a sister of the Rev. C. C. Bateman, army chaplain at Fort Belknap. As her return to the school was forbidden, Mrs. White has been compelled to accept a position as waitress in a hotel at Dupuyer's to support herself and husband.

He Was Invulnerable.

San Francisco, Feb. 23.—The latest news from North Borneo of the native revolution says that Mat Sallah, the leader, has been shot in the leg and badly wounded. Like Kipling's "Man Who Would Be King" Mat has posed as a god invulnerable to bullets. His practice has been to wear his skin after a battle with hot irons and show the marks as traces of bullets which hit him but could not penetrate.

Now that he has been actually wounded he has lost all his prestige and the British expect soon to subdue the revolt.

The railroad commission allows the railroads ten days in which to file exceptions to the reduction of passenger rates which was ordered today. Work on the Raleigh & Cape Fear railroad began today at the Caraleigh mills, one mile south of Raleigh.

ACCIDENT THEORY VANISHING.

So Says the Staff Correspondent of the Washington Star.

Washington, Feb. 23.—The Evening Star has received the following from its staff correspondent in Cuba:

"Havana, Feb. 23, via Key West.

"Inquiry into the Maine disaster progresses along degnite lines. The result so far may be summed up in the statement that the probability that it was an accident seem to decrease with the progress of the investigation.

"The most intense anxiety is shown by the Spanish officials here, who are in constant communication with Madrid. They realize that the relations with the United States were never so much in danger of rupture as now. This is the general feeling.

"The commercial classes here are hopeful of American intervention on peaceful lines, but what they base their hope on is unknown.

"The insurgents continue to win minor military successes. The autonomists are restless and some of the leaders seem on the point of breaking away from the government. Army officers continue to show an anti-American sentiment. They are apparently the only class that does not look for an early crisis.

ZOLA FOUND GUILTY.

Sentenced to a Year's Imprisonment and Fined.

Paris, Feb. 23.—M. Zola and M. Perreux, manager of the Aurore, were found guilty this afternoon. The following question were put to the jury: First, "Is M. Perreux guilty of having slandered the first court-martial of Paris, by publishing in the Aurore an article signed by M. Emile Zola, containing the following attacks." (Here followed the passages upon which the indictment was based.)

Second, "Is M. Zola guilty of having provided M. Perreux and other editors with the means of committing this slander?"

The jury answered both questions in the affirmative. Zola was sentenced to one year's imprisonment, and to pay 3,000 francs fine. The jury was absent about half an hour and on reporting declared their were no extenuating circumstances.

M. Zola on hearing the verdict cried: "They are cannibals." Mr. Zola's sentence is the maximum punishment.

Post-Bellum Bile.

Dr. Arthur Edwards, editor of the Northwestern Christian Advocate, seems determined that the Massachusetts veterans shall not outstrip him in the exhibition of sectional bitterness. Some time ago, the Massachusetts veterans passed resolutions censuring President Andrews and others for according to General Robert E. Lee a few of the virtues which are supposed to be the fruitage of Christian civilization.

Now it is Dr. Edwards' turn. In a late issue of his paper he says: "We exceedingly regret and unqualifiedly deprecate the fact that our national house of representatives, Jan. 28th, passed the old and persistent bill to pay the Nashville Publishing House of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, $288,000 for damages alleged to have been done during the occupation of the city by United States troops during the rebellion * * * The passage of that bill is a deep wrong; it is a dangerous wrong."

What will Dr. Edwards do next? We wonder if he will "deprecate the fact" that God is blessing the Southern Methodist church in the visitation of the Holy Ghost, or that God makes no exception in the case of the "unjust" southern people to His rule of sending the "rain on the just and the unjust."—Christian Advocate.

Col. Mowbray in Asheville.

Col. J. E. Mowbray, of Philadelphia will speak to the citizens of Asheville next Monday evening at the Y. M. C. A., his subject being "Shackles Stricken from Human Limbs and Fangs Extracted from Human Souls."

Col. Mowbray, who is sent out by the National Keeley League, has been styled the late John B. Gough, and is one of the most entertaining speakers in the country.

Col. Mowbray is recommended by Dr. J. H. Weaver, pastor of West Market street church, Greensboro, and by Rev. Egbert W. Smith, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Greensboro.

Scott Brown of Greensboro is here today arranging for the lecture of Col. Mowbray. He goes to Waynesville tomorrow.—Asheville Citizen.

LOOKS BLACKER FOR SPAIN.

Bottom of The Forward Part of The Maine Gone.

MORE POWDER CASES FOUND.

Reported That Cuban Spies Will Testify Before The Court of Inquiry to Seeing Wires.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Havana, Feb. 24.—The divers find no bottom on the forward part of the Maine. Evidence that the ship was blown up by a submarine mine multiplies with each trip of the divers. A grate bar from the waist of the ship has been found near the forward magazine. It would have been blown the other way had the magazine exploded. More cases of powder for the six inch guns were brought up today.

THE SPY STORY.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Tampa, Feb. 24.—Two or three spies it is reported will appear before the court of inquiry. In some old warehouses on shore near where the Maine was buoyed it is stated that wires and other appurtenances were found and circumstances were unearthed pointing to a plot to blow up the Maine.

Terrier Leaves Norfolk.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Pourtsmouth, Va., Feb. 24.—The Monitor Terrier fired a salute and is moving out of the harbor at eleven o'clock. The orders are under seal and will not be opened until the vessel is at sea. The captain will then learn the objective point of his vessel.

More Accurate Service in Greensboro Than Baltimore

Mr. C. M. Vapstary had his little girl's eyes examined in Baltimore last year and went with the prescription to one of the largest and best known optical houses there to have the glasses made up. FORTUNATELY one of the lenses got broken recently and was carried to the Greensboro Eye Specialist to be replaced. He saw at a glance that neither lens accorded with the prescription, and so changed them both. Mr. Vapstary sent the old lenses with an explanation to the oculist who had given the prescription and in reply received the following:

A NEW OPINION.

It has become the custom of late, the fashion largely set by the slumming divines of New York city, to speak loud in approval of the salvation army. It is, therefore, refreshing to hear the other side of the question tersely put.

Dr. James C. Dougherty, of Kansas City, took occasion during the present tour of General Booth to say in a public discourse:

"Whatever the value of the work done by the salvation army," it needs to be distinctly recognized that it is the most absolute despotism on earth."

Continuing, he said: "Let the salvation army take its place for what it is worth. It may be tolerated, even aided, by those who feel most intensely the defects of its methods. But it boasts and speaks disrespectfully of churches as inferior to it and its work. Those who believe a larger Christian creed than is taught by the leader of the salvation army and his followers will have to point out that the training of American citizens by the habit of looking to a man in a foreign country for their religious opinion and for orders as to their acts is a great evil not compensated for by all the good boasted as done by the army. Bossism, irresponsible leadership, is always intolerable to those who prize the cultivation of manhood above all else."

The cultivation of manhood—that is the final test in this country. Whatever hinders it is inimical because, even more here than elsewhere, the whole fabric of society rests upon it.

Every mushroom method of turning the world into a garden of Eden looks to this country for many of its pose-lytes and most of its sinews of war because it finds here a heterogeneity of races and creeds and a freedom accorded its preponderance not to be found elsewhere. But even Americans should get weary of the salvation army.

What has become of that large body of cool headed gentlemen who wished to buy the water works when the question of sewerage extension was mooted? Are they seeing to it that the matter of purchase shall receive consideration at the hands of the board? Is any move being made in any quarter to furnish the city with the common necessities of city life? Has the city engineer ever submitted to the board any estimate as to the cost of a complete system of sewerage? And is that not the way that business men transact business? Does the board have to be punched from the outside before it can even investigate matters that directly concern the welfare of the city and of each citizen of it? Was the claim that $50,000 was insufficient and the cry about purchasing the water works first only blinds to cover the retreat of the board from a position that nobody has proved was untenable?

Auditor Ayer says what he terms the "triple-headed alliance" in politics is equal to the explosion of the Maine. He argues that it is a bomb; the explosion of which has startled all parties—Col. Olds.

Auditor Ayer is himself at least a triple-headed alliance. Indeed it may be doubted whether three heads can accommodate his political wisdom without being uncomfortably crowded.

The Charlotte Observer served notice a day or two ago that it was tired of the snarling at its heels and proposed to lay about it. Commenting upon this the Asheville Citizen says:

"As for the Charlotte Observer it has been decent too long to get both hands into the tar bucket at this late day. No doubt it could lay on a lot of stuff where it would appear to fit, but the satisfaction would not be lasting. We hope to see it keep to the better part—where it is now."

The Observer knows its own business but it should remember the infinite power of silent contempt. We have admired all along the dignity of the Observer under circumstances trying enough at times. Like the Citizen we should regret any change of policy.

If there is any one thing that is not needed in this country just now it is an increase of militant patriotism. Is it not a proof of the utter unreliability of the yellow journals that they should seek to fan into a flame the sullen resentment against Spain before the court of inquiry can report? If war were declared tomorrow and volunteers called for, more men would offer in six days than the government could equip in six months. Why therefore charge what has not yet been proved? Because sensational charges come cheap and make yellow journals sell dear. That is all.

South Carolina has been going down hill pretty fast of late years but firing the house of a negro postmaster and shooting the whole family, two of them fatally, when they ran out to escape the flames is the worst that has been recorded against her. Until the dastardly villains who committed the deed are legally hanged it will remain as a blot upon the whole state. Shooting down women and children in cold blood—and that occurred not in Armenia, not in Cuba but in South Carolina.

American millionaires who have been claiming that they have a monopoly on patriotism have an excellent opportunity to show it. They might buy a half-dozen custom-made warships and present them to the union.

That was a very pretty speech Mr. Zola made but somehow the impression will stick that the orator had his face toward the reporters' gallery instead of the jury box when he made it.

Not the least threatening part of the present crisis from a Spanish point of view is the nonchalance with which Americans view the probability of war.

We have not heard that the old rule has been reversed that the fellow who talks loudest does least of the fighting.

They are a good many democrats in the state of North Carolina who do not love Mr. Marion Butler.

Either M. Zola or his counsel contains much excellent senatorial timber.

M. E. CHURCH AT MILTON.

Dedicated by Dr. Ivey, of the North Carolina Christian Advocate.

Milton, N. C., Feb. 23—Dr. T. N. Ivey, editor of the Christian Advocate Greensboro, dedicated the Methodist church here Sunday.

Dr. Ivey preached a very fine sermon gave delight to all that heard him. It was a glad day for the Methodists, though few in number, they have been great in zeal and have given liberal of their means upbuild their church here.

Rev. J. H. Moore, their first pastor, was present and preached at night. The present pastor, Rev. E. W. Fox, though quite a young man, is greatly esteemed by our people as a sincere, earnest christian. He labored faithfully to discharge the debt on the church and all denominations rejoice with him that he has seen the fruits of his labor.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed when the languid, exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, constipation, dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c. and $1.00 per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

CONFEDERATE FLAG BARRED.

A Proposed Reunion of the Blue and Gray Which Did Not Occur.

Chambersburg, Pa., Feb. 22—The confederate flag was not carried in a parade here today simply because Houston Post of the G. A. R. put its foot down on the scheme. An elaborate celebration of Washington's birthday had been arranged sometime ago. The G. A. R. veterans of this city determined to have a jubilation and among their invited guests were to be the Gen. Turner Asbury Camp of Confederate Veterans of Winchester, Va.

A few days ago the Virginians notified the post here that a confederate flag, "which was brought from Appomattox" would be carried in the parade.

Houston Post sent word back that the G. A. R. boys still stood by their invitation, but that all must march under "Old Glory" here on Washington's birthday or not at all.

The Virginians thereupon recalled their acceptance of the invitation to attend tonight's campfire and bean soup and there the incident ends.

SPAIN BOUGHT HER VICTORY.

Paid $600,000 to Philippine Leaders to Stop Fighting.

San Francisco, Feb. 23—The Philippine rebellion was suppressed but the news comes to Hong Kong, where 35 of the rebel leaders sought refuge, that the Spaniards gained the victory not by force of arms but by a subsidy of $600,000 and a safe conduct out of the country.

The general impression at Manila is that the insurgent leaders will use this money to purchase improved weapons and that when all preparations are made another revolution will begin. With modern weapons and plenty of ammunition the insurgents in the recent revolution would have been able to take Manila and capture all of the islands.

I cannot say enough for its merits." Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is not an experiment. It has been tried for a quarter of a century, and today stands at the head. Only to Think of It!

For ten years I suffered with a sore on my mouth which caused me some uneasiness, and after having the doctors to take it out without effecting a cure, I began to take Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy, two years ago. After I began to take the medicine the sore discharged a great deal, but I soon began to feel better every way and knew it was doing me great good. I took twenty-two bottles and it made a perfect cure of my case. My general health has been excellent ever since taking it. I cannot say too much in praise of the medicine, it is certainly a great medicine.

The "world for forty-seven dollars" and old sewing machines at any price is advertised by Wingate Bros. today.

What about that gala week? Don't let the matter die. Let the business men pull together with the newspapers and whoop it up.

O. J. Carroll, representing the Morning Post, came in from Lexington this morning and went up to Winston in the interest of that paper.

The house on the corner of South Elm and Lee streets belonging to Mr. Coltrane, is being repaired inside, bath-room fixtures put in, etc.

A special sale of good values in shoes at very greatly reduced prices is advertised by the Sample Brown Mercantile company. Read the ad in this paper.

Weather prophets here say that we may look out for a long, cold and wintry spell in March. These predictions are based largely on the fact that the winter has not been a severe one up to date.

The news reaches The Telegram of a strong probability that very soon a handsome building will be erected where the Pemberton boarding house now stands to be occupied by a wholesale mercantile establishment.

A prominent Greensboro merchant said a day or two ago, when paying The Telegram a bill for advertising: "I have never paid a bill which gave me more pleasure to pay than this one. The Telegram has done its duty and the ad brought me large returns."

The great majority of people who wear tan shoes wear them laced, but there is a respectable majority who think life is too short to spend part of it in tying and untying shoes and won't have anything but Congress gaiters. This class can be supplied at Thacker & Brockmann's who have just received a line of Rockland tan and vic kid Congress gaiters, along with a full line of tan laced shoes in various styles. THE PROFESSOR
IN
"A NIGHT OFF."
In the Superior Court.

TO WHIP EDITOR DANIELS.

Hancock Says Governor Russell Asked Him to Do So.

The Hancock-Russell sensation dwarfed all others today. Hancock says he will prove his charge that Governor Russell endeavored to incite him to assault Editor Daniels, and thus violate the law. The Governor waked up at 1:30 this morning, says Hancock is a liar. The flat-footed statement is made that the impeachment of the Governor by the next Legislature is a certainty. It is a comment that Hancock should have shot his bolt some days ago, before the directors of the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad met. The charges that he makes were known to two republicans at least they said so today, that is, they knew he would make them and if they were questioned would call names of at least three men; one who he says gave him a message, another who met him at the station here on arrival and a third who later asked him if he had done what he had been advised to do. —Cgl. Old's correspondence.

The governor respires John Evans, of Rockingham, until March 26th. The reason given is that a mass of newly discovered evidence is laid before the governor, which requires time to consider. There are 250 letters and 50 affidavits.
